NEWSLETTERS BY EMAIL ONLY

Well last month our guest speaker Ernie Savoie had to cancel at the last minute. We will reschedule later. It was okay though since the weather was very cold not many members showed up.

At this meeting we will be voting for new officers and board members. We will be taking final nominations from the floor prior to voting. Below are the positions to vote for and small description of each position:

President – facilitate board and general meetings, prepares and distributes agendas, sign checks, assigns duties for committees, meeting, and projects, maintains order and timelines of meetings and projects, ex-officio of all committees except the nominating committee.

Vice-President – assumes responsibilities of president when president is absent, selects and secures speakers/programs for meetings, assist committees as requested.

Secretary – records, prepares, signs and distributes minutes of board and general meetings to include attendance, maintain sign-in sheets, report on actions and activities of the meetings, reports on presentations presented, record motions and votes, maintains membership list (along with treasurer), determines who is eligible to vote, records votes by results, maintains by-laws, has knowledge of policies and procedures, has copy of by-laws at all meetings, implements policies, responsible for filing legal and other documents and applications.

Treasurer – responsible for all financial records, report to board and general membership monthly, quarterly, and annual basis, ensure all governmental reports and filed accurately and timely, assist secretary with maintaining membership rolls, assist librarian with inventory records.

Correspondence Secretary/Librarian – collect, respond to, and present to board all incoming general correspondence, maintain all publications and asset inventory of organization, assist with queries.

Board Members – establish mission and strategic planning for organization, act as guardian of all organization assets, attend meetings, act as “Project Lead” on project of choice.

CALL FOR ARTICLES

America's 250th anniversary is this year! We are looking for stories about people, events, and places associated with the founding of our country. Especially those of Terrebonne, Lafourche, or Assumption Parishes in Louisiana. Do you have ancestors or descendants or stories about the past celebrations of the founding of our country. Send them to wmoore1048@aol.com.
